
Dashed: separately trained one-step policy, on identical windows. Shading: range of seed means, not a confidence interval. Divergent averages are flagged, not plotted as finite values.